Drama Series

Runtime: 16eps x 55min
Release: 2017. 9 / KBS
Director: Park Ki-Ho
Writer: Park Sun-Ja

The drama begins with eighteen-years-old boy and his families descending through the countryside. Wanting to tell the story with the daily life and the events of the boy who was a typical city child who was accustomed to urban life and the family in a new environment.

On February 7, KBS's upcoming drama "Andante" revealed a glimpse of EXO's Kai at the first shooting for the drama back in the middle of January. In the images, Kai has perfectly changed into the 18-year-old high school student Si Kyung. His face seems to reflect some sort of worry or fear, making fans wonder how the drama will unfold.

On the first day of filming, Kai lightened up the mood with a smooth smile and enthusiastic attitude. Even the director was surprised by his dedication when he saw that Kai had prepared various voice tones for even the simplest scenes. Kai went from sly to innocent depending on the scene, portraying the complicated mind of a high school student.

A source from the production team complimented Kai, saying, "Despite the cold weather and harsh schedule, Kai is continuing to film optimistically, showing his professional attitude. His character will be facing drastic changes later in the drama, so there is still much more that Kai will be able to show us. Please look forward to it."

Meanwhile, "Andante" is a pre-produced drama that shares the story of Si Kyung, a kid from the city who transfers to a high school in the countryside. As he takes on various unfamiliar experiences, he grows and learns about the true meaning of life and love. Stay tuned for more updates on the drama!

William J. Spencer (Pierre Deporte) is a young British aristocrat in the year 1640 with a fascination for East Asian art, languages, and culture. He counts as his closest friend the young somewhat mercenary Japanese merchantman Yan. William is swindled by a shady merchant into believing that a plain porcelain chamber pot is a mystical artifact; he then sails off to Nagasaki in order to open the "aquatic silk road" between Japan and England, but mostly to escape his creepy and overbearing mother and an arranged marriage. Yan is promised a handsome reward if he can drag her son back in time for the wedding and hightails it after his "friend."

Meanwhile, the Joseon Kingdom is operating under a foreign policy that strictly prohibits trade with Westerners, garnering the nickname "the hermit kingdom." Just south of the Korean mainland lies the island of Jeju, which at this point in history is known as Tamra. The people who live on the island derive their livelihoods by diving for abalone, cultivating a large area of persimmon orchards, and basic subsistence farming; much of what they produce is tithed to the King through a corrupt local government.

Park Gyu (Im Joo-hwan) arrives from Hanyang (the historical name for Seoul) on a secret mission from the King to uncover corruption, embezzlement, and whatever else he may find on Tamra. However, his cover story leads to a tangle of complications for him: used to being doted on as an aristocratic scholar and high government official, he is sent to Tamra on the pretense of having been at the center of a sexual harassment scandal for which he has been permanently banished to the island, where he will have to work for a local family despite not being used to manual labor.

<Synopsis>

Here, there is a girl who at least wants to be popular, but in reality, people around her are confused by even her name, and she has zero presence...an invisible person...out of the outsider... The girl's name is Kim Ji-eun.

Even the name had no special character, so it was buried among names full of personality don't have much to say and I'm not shy, so I just sit quietly in the classroom like air... Unfortunately, even in the app, which is not real, Jieun does not receive attention. Even if you post something like everyone else on <Insa Time>, a community app that all school students use, it is often buried without a single response or comment!

Ji-eun only envies the unknown writers who become popular by posting articles on apps by becoming 'forced' readers

The app <Inssa Time> allows you to conveniently check meal menus, school-related notices, etc., but the essence of this app is the 'secret bulletin board'. On this bulletin board where posts are posted anonymously and replies are made anonymously, all kinds of gossip and issues that cannot be heard in the classroom run rampant!! From a crazy drama about someone cheating on someone while dating someone, to a confession that it was actually the person who bullied someone and left them out of the group, etc. Because various genres are posted every day and every hour, the secret bulletin board is also called the dopamine bulletin board' among students. Of course, you can enjoy it because you never know who posted it.

Although it is fun to guess who it is, the secret bulletin board is actively operated because we know that it is only a guess and we will never find out ...
